1. Students may only count two 100-level courses (102-23) toward the Major.

2. Core Requirement in the Major. Students must have a grade of "C" or better in each and every one of the core courses.

3. English majors must take three courses in one of four Concentrations (see "English Major Selected Concentrations"). For the Concentration, no more than one course can be taken at the 100-level and at least one course must be taken at the 400-level.

4. All English majors must satisfy a set of three distribution requirements (see "English Major Distribution Requirements"). The distribution requirements can be satisfied with courses in the concentration or with elective courses.

5. Students must complete five elective courses, no more than one of which may be at the 100-level.

6. Students must complete two courses at or above the 300 level.

7. One course from another department other than English may count toward the major. See the course catalog for a list of approved courses.

Note: Students must earn at least 40 hours at the 200, 300, or 400 level at a 4-year college or university. These hours may include hours in the major.

Note: Beginning fall 2007, the General Education Requirement is 9 courses, 2 laboratory courses from Analyzing the Natural World, 1 course from each of Understanding the Individual and Society, Understanding the Past, Understanding the Creative Arts, Exploring World Cultures, and Understanding U.S. Society. Two additional courses will be taken from any of these categories.

Note: Two English courses may be used to satisfy two of the nine courses in the new General Education Requirement. Please check the list in the new catalog.
